A Modern Drinking Song.

BY GEORGE SENNOTE Fill high your bowl with fasil-oil!

With tannin let your cups be erowned ! If strychnia gives relief to tall, Let strychnia's generous juice abound

With oil of vitriol cool your brains, Or, animated atoms brew-

And fill your arteries, hearts and veins, With gies-and infusorial gine !

Ab-la-h ! fragrant fume of kerosote ! Bewitching bowl of Prussian blue! Who would not cool his parching throat

With your bright offspring, mountain dew ! Stronger than aught that wrecked the frame. Or shook the mighty brain of Burns : Hurely, you'll set our heads affame Where'er his festal day returns ! Bring on the beer ! Fresh copperss foam, With slum mixed in powder fine !

How could my foolish funcy roam

In search of whiter froth than thine Thise Indian-herry's essence, spread Through amber waveless, sparkling clear, Benumbs dull care-strikes feeling dead, And narcotiges shame and fear !

Far down thy bubbling depths, champagne ! Brown'd honor, love and beauty lie! They fought th' unequal fight in vain!

Shall we, then, merely drink and die? Sweet acctate of lead forbid! To ev'ry drink add pangs-and tell

What tortures in thy bosom hid Anticipate the stings of hell ! Then drink, boys ! Drink ! We never can Drink younger-and we never will Be a cu-or aught resembling man-While polsoners have the power to kill !

Amen ! From frenzy's screech of mirth, To maudlin sorrow's drunken flow, Let's rave through scenes unmatch'd on earth! And not to be surpass'd below !

VARIETY.

Man respires, aspires, expires. Odd-fellows' haul-A rich wife. To love is the only thing that can fill up eternity. An editor who was going a-courting said he was "going to press,"

Why do honest ducks dip their heads under water? To liquidate their little bills. Why are religious people fit subjects for ento-mologists? Because they are in-sects

What is that which has a mouth and never speaks and a hed in which it never sleeps? A river. How to turn people's heads-Come into a concert late with creaking boots.

Of the hundred good things in this life, ninety-

An eastern journalist has discovered the correct pronunciation at last-mob-o'-hars. Mark Twain assails the character of J. Iscariot by calling him a premature Congressman.

Kansas lawyers are fined for profanity and contempt of court when they undertake to quote Latin to the judge.

A Virginia paper describes a fence which is made of such crooked rails that every time a pig crawls through he comes out on the same side. Mark Twain says that among the most foolish things the Sandwich Islanders do, is to elect the most incorruptible men to Congress. A Cincinnati teacher by the name of Rapp struck one of his pupils on the head with an English grammar-and be parsed to a better

Taxation is said to bear equally on all classes, from the fact that it hardly presses on the rich, and presses hardly on the poor. A crusty old bachelor says that Adam's wife was called Eve, because when she appeared, man's day of happiness was drawing to a close. Some of the members of Congress who pocketed the $5000 back pay bonus are going to the Vienna Exposition, with their families, being too conscientious to spend the money at home. A Kansas youth has frozen his nose seven times this winter, pacing in front of his sweetheart's house, waiting for the "other fellow" to leave. At a concert recently, at the conclusion of the song, "There's a good time coming," a country farmer got up and exclaimed—" Mister, you couldn't fix the date, could you?" Some experienced Indian-fighters of Nevada want to contract to clean out the Modocs within sixty days and deliver their scalps to the Government. They are willing to do the job for $50,000. Josh Billings says-" There iz one thing about a hen that looks like wisdum-they don't kackle much until after they have laid their eggs. Sum pholks are alwas a bragging and a kackling what they are going tew do beforehand." There is a distinguished poet in the Virginia Enterprise. He pathetically alludes to California as a place where the dissolute grasshopper sitteth epon ye mullen stalk and raspeth his libidinous addle. Next. Josh Billings says-" I will state for the information of those who haven't had a chance to lay in insect wisdom as freely as I have, that one single hornet, who feels well, will break up a whole camp meeting." Lecturing on the Sandwich Islands, in New York the other evening, Mark Twain graphically described the costume of the islanders. In the towns they wear something like civilized garments; but "in the up-country they wear-well, a smile, or a pair of spectacles, or something of A California musical critic thus speaks of a prima dona-" She had, and I suppose still retains a magnificent voice for a fog whistle. Its compass was perfectly surprising. She would shake the chandelier with a wild whoop that made every man instinctively feel for his scalp, and follow it up with a roar that would shame a IMPORTER AND DEALER IN CLOTH-ING, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Jewelry, Perfumery, Pocket Cutlery, and every description of Gent's Superior Affected young lady, seated in a rocking chair reading the Bible, exclaims—" Mother, here is a grammatical error in the Bible!" Mother, lowering her spectacles, and approaching the reader in a very scrutinizing attitude, says: "Kill it, kill it! It's the very thing that has been eating the book-marks!" One of the cases on the docket at Franklin recently was the suit of a young man against his father for money which plaintiff claims he loaned, but which the defendant averred belonged to himself. The counsel for the defendant, in summing up the ease, said, very pithily—" Twice has he returned to his father's house, twice for him has the fatted calf been killed, and he now comes back for the old cow." A Bun or PROMISE. - A boy of tender years and heart has drowned seventeen kittens, tied tin pans to the tails of all the neighbors' dogs, ornamented his chamber by pinning flies to the wall, cut brickbats with his uncle's razor, blown up a pet canary with a fire-cracker, pulled the tail feathers out of two roosters, been thrown into the top of an apple tree by a cow that he was teasing. brushed his father's hat against the grain, told his sister's lover about her false teeth, and still his fond mother intends him for the pulpit.

fully received and promptly

A RETREAT FOR INVALIDS. THE CLIMATE OF THESE ISLANDS is noted the world over for general salubrity, while certain particular localities in the group are more especially favorably known. The district of Kona, on the ice side of Hawaii, has long been famed as a place of resort for those afflicted with affections of the lungs. Not a few cases have been known of persons who had been given over as sure to die, by their physicians in California, after a few months residence in the pure, mild air of Kona, recovering robust health and taking a new lease of life.

The undersigned, at his commodious house at Kaawaloa, South Kona, is prepared to furnish good accommodations to boarders at the low rate of $5 per week; including good saddle horses when desired, and good fresh water baths, on the premises, also within a short distance of fine sea bathing. The steamer Kilauca runs regularly between Honolulu and the port of Kaawaloa, and horses are kept ready at the beach. Every accommodation and comfort in the way of diet. MILK and HONEY in abundance. Delightful rides in the neighborhood.
